

FIRST SOUTHERN BAPTIST CHURCH

The LINK

May 2021

Volume 22, Issue 5

As we have been looking at the Holy Spirit on Sunday mornings there has been a quote from A.W. Tozer that truly haunts me. "If the Holy Spirit was withdrawn from the church today, 95 percent of what we do would go on and no one would know the difference. If the Holy Spirit has been withdrawn from the New Testament church 95 percent of what they did would stop and everybody would know the different." The Holy Spirit is the fuel or power of the church. We are a grace enabled people. Grace of God has come in Jesus' redemption and the grace of God has come in the empowering indwelling work of the Spirit. The Spirit did the work in the early church filling believers with a noticeable power and presence. Whether you hold to a continuationist (all the giftings of the Spirit continue today) or cessationist (some of many giftings have ceased today) view of the Spirit's work today, the need has not changed for the church's reliance.

I believe that the modern church of 1900 forward has tried to work to overcome the lack of the Spirit's work. This is seen in much of the hype or manmade energy to stir up something that is simply not there. It is seen in an ignorance of the Spirit and an insensitivity towards the Spirit. When you can create a digital global presence; why seek the Spirit today? When we can pat ourselves on the back; why submit to the leading of the Spirit?

Honestly, when I think about this leading of the Spirit, it scares me a little. I know there are times when I ignore the promptings of the Spirit to share the Gospel with someone, make a visit or call. I know there are times when God prompts me to give in unusual ways. I have also seen and been incredibly grateful for the times that I have listened and followed through.

Acts 4:31, "And when they had prayed, the place in which they were gathered together was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continue to speak the word of God with boldness." Don't miss the connections here of the gathered church, prayer, the Spirit shaking filling, and bold proclamation of the Word of God. Now see the Spirit filled church attributes that follow.

Acts 4:32-34: Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common. And with great power the apostles were giving their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all. There was not a needy person among them...

Look at the marks displayed by the church here. They exhibit a Spirit filled unity. They share in a Spirit filled generosity. They testify of Jesus with a Spirit filled boldness. This sounds like a pretty happening place to be. They have no need to create an attractional church paradigm, because the Spirit's work has made them attractive. God has not ceased the pursuit of unity, generosity, and bold testimony in His Church; we are those who can grow comfortable right where we are doing the same things. The question is whether we are listening to the Spirit's prompts and steeping in the Word of God towards obedience. Left to our own we grow selfish and cold. The Spirit's works to convicts us (John 16:8) and lead our lives into "all truth" (John 16:13).

Listen in to a closing statement in our Bible. Revelation 22:17 "The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price." Church lets us come into a fuller understanding of God. Let us rise to a greater and uncomfortable obedience. Walking in the thirst quenching, life giving, leading of the Spirit.

Gratefully,
Tim Singleton

"Let the little children come to me."

Children's Ministry ~ Roz Crane

"IN THE END WE'LL LEARN SOMETHING PROFOUND: IN GOD'S EYES, PLAN B WAS PLAN A ALL ALONG."¹

The Kids in Sunday School just had two lessons about Gideon, from the book of Judges, with the Bible truth being: "We can always trust God." Just like any exercise, whether sit-ups or piano scales, in the end it makes us stronger. As life has been so different this past year, we have hopefully exercised faith and trust and have come out stronger!

HOWEVER, as I look at the places where our preschool, kids, and youth departments still need teachers, I could be like Gideon, throwing out a fleece, to see if God is really with us as we struggle to provide kids what they need to grow in faith.

BUUUUT...as God does over and over, meeting me where I am, this morning I opened Kids Ministry magazine and "SURPRISE, SURPRISE", there was an article titled, "5 Leadership Lessons from GIDEON." Right that moment God met me where I was in my discouragement about "things" being normal and not having all the teachers and helpers we need.

AAAAND...as I read, I realized that I had been so focused on teaching kids, that I had not taken time to internalize the truth from last week's lesson for myself, that we can always trust God!

Here are 5 lessons from the story of Gideon:

1. THE MISSION HASN'T CHANGED

2 Tim. 4:2 challenges us to present the Word "in season and out of season."

Gideon's mission never changed, only the method.

2. GOD SOMETIMES DOES THINGS IN ADSURD WAYS.

Gideon and 300 men defeated the 132,000 Midianites with clay jars and torches.

3. IT'S NOT YOUR BATTLE

In Judges 6-7 there are at least 11 times when it's GOD'S actions are mentioned, not Gideon's. Stop trying to carry the burden!

4. GOD WILL ACCOMPLISH HIS PLAN

God is absolutely, 100%, perfectly in control of every circumstance. Instead of asking God to be with us in our plans, may we ask that He allow us to be with Him in His plans!

5. GOD WANTS US TO WALK IN CONFIDENCE BY FAITH.

When the battle time came, Gideon said, "Do what I do." It's not enough to talk about faith; we have to walk it.

In the end, we'll learn something profound: In God's eyes, Plan B was Plan A all along. 😊

Submitted by Nancy Rogers

WHY PRAY?

1. The Bible commands it. “Pray without ceasing” (1 Thes. 5:17)

Almost 1,000 passages deal with prayer in one way or another.

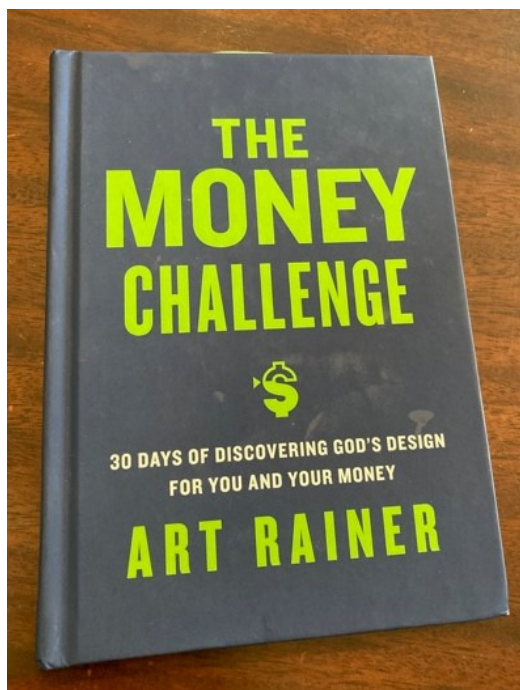

We all want to be, by our prayers, an instrument of God that leads His people to experience His presence as we gather together.

God responds to our personal and corporate prayers—as we read in the account of Peter being released from prison in Acts 12:12-19 by the corporate prayer of believers.

Personal prayer and corporate prayer are like two wings of an airplane. Which one would you rather do without? The absence of either would be fatal. Each is equally important.

Let our prayers for our church be the fuel to ignite God-given power to lift us to new heights in faith, renewed commitment to reaching others, and lift those who have not made a commitment of faith to have their eyes and ears opened to receive the life-giving message of Jesus.
